

59th Jazz Festival Ljubljana 27–30 June 2018

We are proud to announce the forthcoming 59th Jazz Festival Ljubljana and the opening concert with Kristijan Krajnčan / Dave Holland, Zakir Hussain and Chris Potter Trio. Join us on this journey into the limitless expanses of creativity and music delights.

WED / 27 Jun

19.00 DrummingCellist (Slovenia)

20.00 Dave Holland, Zakir Hussain and Chris Potter Trio (Great Britain/India/USA)

Drummer, cellist and composer Kristijan Krajnčan, one of Slovenia's most prolific and incisive young artists who has built up an enviable international reputation, is presenting his new solo project and promoting his latest release, DrummingCellist. Distilling contemporary jazz, classical, film music and other genres into a comprehensive music storytelling, DrummingCellist presents an exciting, fresh, daring, colourful and out of the ordinary approach. This is music that moves fiercely and gracefully across borders, beyond average, beyond the usual, beyond standard confinements, exploring possibilities of two paramount instruments with a pure and complete artistic vision of sonic discovery.

An all-star line-up of undisputed virtuoso performers, the trio revives the ideas of the 1970s jazz figures who blended jazz with other styles, most frequently incorporating elements of Indian music. The unbridled mysteriousness of Indian rhythms sensually overlaps with abstract and ethereal jazz themes. Dave Holland's professional career spans over 50 years. He contributed to Miles Davis' ground-breaking albums (Bitches Brew) and was later heavily involved in the lively new scene that mixed jazz with elements of rock, ethnic music, funk, etc. Zakir Hussain collaborates both with Indian classical musicians and jazz figures of such legendary status as John McLaughlin (Shakti) and Charles Lloyd (Sangam). Working with Holland for the past several years, Chris Potter has recorded and performed with many of the leading names in jazz, including Herbie Hancock, John Scofield, Mingus Big Band and Dave Douglas.

*Double concert, Gallus Hall, EUR 15*–28*
